

The Academy of School Counselling

Excellence in children and young people's therapy and training

£99
Lunch included

The Academy of School Counselling is offering a unique opportunity to experience cutting edge training in child therapy.

It is also the entry point for all our professional qualification courses which are suitable for:

- Teaching and pastoral staff
- Social workers or foster carers
- Youth workers and early years practitioners
- Mentors and counsellors in training
- Anyone with an interest in helping children and young people

You will take-away practical skills and knowledge to use safely and enhance your ability to respond effectively to this age group as well as gaining an understanding of the importance of children and young people's emotional wellbeing.

The taster day will also help to develop your understanding of working therapeutically with children and young people and give you an insight into the field of counselling as a career path.

Sample our Level 3 Working Therapeutically with Children and Young People course starting in January 2016

TASC has evolved through successful partnership between ABC and Time 4 You throughout work in schools across the Tees Valley area.
