STEVE THOMPSON - DIGITAL CONSULTANT

Digital Start Ups

ST Media is offering a FREE workshop - "Digital Start Ups".

The workshop shows new and existing enterprises how to go digital with a domain name, email, simple website (if needed) and can include e-commerce etc.

This workshop will suite all kinds of businesses: builders, hairdressers, shops etc. Find out how to join the digital revolution the right way and promote and grow your business. The solutions you will be shown are easy to use and low cost and some are even free.

If you would like to attend one of these or if you have a venue that would like to run one please get in touch.
