Children and Young People's Participation and Social Action Coordinator

Dear Applicant,

Re: Children and Young People's Participation and Social Action Coordinator

Thank you for your interest in working for The Junction. Within the application pack you will find a Job Description, Person Specification, Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form and application form.

The Junction is a respected charity working to make a difference to the lives of children young people and their families. We are proud of our reputation and believe that all of our workers are key to establishing positive relationships, building trust, self belief, a sense of family and belonging.

We are a growing and developing organisation and have made substantial progress within our Children and Young People's Participation, Voice and Social Action over recent years, developments include:

- Strategic commitment to children and young people's voice through our Participation Policy and Strategic Plan
- Regular Social Action and Campaigning on concerns and interests raised by children and young people
- Children and young people's participation through our strategic decision-making group, The Junction Heart, who ensure:
  - their views are represented across all levels of the charity
  - their achievements celebrated
  - that participation and service development is led by young people and
  - that our range of services focus groups act as a frontline feedback mechanisms
- A growing amount of externally commission Youth Voice and Participation work including the PCC Youth Information Advisory Group, support to Redcar and Cleveland's Children Service Youth Participation work and various other initiatives.

Much of this work has been led by the senior leadership team and we are now seeking to sustain and develop this work with a good practice, coordination and capacity resource. In order to do this, we are seeking an experienced practitioner who has experience of supporting children and young people from a range of backgrounds to develop the confidence and skills necessary to have their voice heard as well as the experience of delivering project outcomes to timescale in a dynamic environment. The right candidate will have experience of working with complexity, managing stakeholder relationships and the ability to deliver key project milestones. This includes line management of support workers, monitoring and interpreting data to formulate reports and improve performance through monitoring, the ability to contribute to the development of participation work and design new projects to meet identified need is essential. Key to this is ensuring decision making and coproduction with children and young people informs everything that we do.

This is an exciting and challenging opportunity for a candidate who has the commitment and drive to deliver great outcomes for young people and ensure their views are utilised to create positive change. You will be supported in your role by the Youth and Participation Lead and Chief Executive.

Within The Junction

There are a range of services within The Junction all working towards shared goals and all focused on making a difference to the lives of children, young people and their families, including:

- Youth Employment Services
- Young Carers' Services
- Youth Services
- Children and Young People's Emotional Wellbeing and Mental Health Services
- Children and Young People's Specialist Transport Services

We pride ourselves on being able to provide multiple specialist services 'under one roof' with each service interacting together to provide the best possible seamless service to children and young people. We employ multi-disciplinary teams of professionals with backgrounds in psychology, social work, counselling, youth work and youth unemployment as well as other qualified and experienced practitioners who:

- Understand the issues facing children and young people
- Have the skills to effectively support them
- Can deliver outcome focused interventions

We have developed a unique service delivery model to ensure that clients are able to access a service that supports their individual needs. However, the ethos of The Junction ensures our services do not work in silos, although we recognise the need for service identities and separate lines of accountability to stakeholders.

All of our services are person-centred, outcome-focused and outcome-driven with an increased need to evidence the impact our services have on children, young people and their families.

Expectations and Job Description

It is essential that everyone who works or volunteers for The Junction recognises how their efforts help us make a difference to the lives of so many children, young people and families who are in need of our support.
