Dear Applicant,

Re: United Tracks (Youth Music) Coordinator

Thank you for your interest in working for The Junction. Within the application pack you will find a Job Description, Person Specification, Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form and application form.

The Junction is a respected charity working to make a difference to the lives of children young people and their families. We are proud of our reputation and believe that all of our workers are key to establishing positive relationships, building trust, self-belief, a sense of family and belonging.

Due to successfully gaining stability funding from Youth Music to deliver the United Tracks Project till April 2025, we are seeking a Coordinator for this project. The project will deliver to children and young people aged 11 to 25 years alongside support workers with specific reference to rural isolation and urban deprivation and include groups such as young carers, young people with disabilities, young people who are not in education and employment, as well as other targeted groups.

The right candidate will have experience of working within an informal environment, engaging with hard to reach and vulnerable young people in developmental opportunities to achieve positive change through community music. They will also have the ability to engage and work with a variety of community musicians and services (based on the needs and interests of young people, develop pathways for progression (in music or youth leadership) and develop the service. We are looking for a motivated, well organised and committed person with a passion and experience in supporting local children and young people and who enjoy learning new skills.

Making a Difference

By being part of an extra ordinary team, we work together to help transform the lives of local children, young people and families.

Within The Junction

There are a range of services within The Junction all working towards shared goals and all focused on making a difference to the lives of children, young people and their families, including:

- Youth Employment Services
- Young Carers' Services
- Youth Services
- Children and Young People's Emotional Wellbeing and Mental Health Services
- Children and Young People's Specialist Transport Services

We pride ourselves on being able to provide multiple specialist services 'under one roof' with each service interacting together to provide the best possible seamless service to children and young people. We employ multi-disciplinary teams of professionals with backgrounds in psychology, social work, counselling, youth work and youth unemployment as well as other qualified and experienced practitioners who:

- Understand the issues facing children and young people
- Have the skills to effectively support them
- Can deliver outcome focused interventions

We have developed a unique service delivery model to ensure that clients are able to access a service that supports their individual needs. However, the ethos of The Junction ensures our services do not work in silos, although we recognise the need for service identities and separate lines of accountability to stakeholders.

All of our services are person-centred, outcome-focused and outcome-driven with an increased need to evidence the impact our services have on children, young people and their families.

Expectations and Job Description

It is essential that everyone who works or volunteers for The Junction recognises how their efforts help us make a difference to the lives of so many children, young people and families who are in need of our support. It is equally important that everyone is conscious of how their role supports the Vision and Mission of The Junction and that everyone can feel a sense of pride in their work.

We are very protective of our reputation of putting children and young people at the heart of everything we do and we have a clear expectation that all of our workers believe in and work to the Values and Key Principles of the organisation.

Vision

Our vision is a world where no child, young person or family is left to struggle. We want a world where there is always someone to talk to.

Mission

To empower children, young people and their families to embrace life with confidence, facing life's challenges in a positive way.

Values	Key Principles
We listen	ildren and Young People are at the heart of everything we do
We genuinely care
We don't judge	r workers are the key to building strong, positive relationships
We empower	Working in partnership to make change happen

Working within The Junction's policy environment

All staff and volunteers within The Junction are expected to work in accordance with the policies, practices and procedures of the organisation. Key to this approach is a commitment to promote and safeguard the welfare of children, young people and vulnerable adults, as safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. Similarly, all staff are expected to demonstrate a commitment to promoting and valuing diversity, being prepared to challenge the use of discriminatory language and to support and encourage non-discriminatory practice.

Personal Development

All staff are expected to make a commitment to their own personal development, partaking in personal development opportunities and undertaking training, supervision and appraisal as required and to support the personal development of others, particularly apprentices.
